

New First Certificate Masterclass, unit 9

pages 119-123

to be hooked on	= to be addicted to he is a drug addict. She is a sport addict.	être dépendant de a grave	it is a hole in the ground where you put a corpse (the body of a dead person: un cadavre)	_____ a fiend / /	= a devil, a monster	un démon, un monstre foul / /	very bad: what a foul smell in here!	infect, immonde a curtain	Can you open the curtains, please!	_____ weird / /	= strange	_____ to waste	Don't waste your time reading this novel! He wasted a lot of money to buy a car	_____ grown-up (adj)	He had a grown-up attitude = adult, mature	_____ despite this	= in spite of this	_____ to mind	Do you mind helping me?	_____ to market	You market a product, you launch it	_____ numbness	the fact of being _____ = unable to move because of the cold, etc.	l'engourdissement to sue	He was sued a month ago.	poursuivre en justice an aerial	= an antenna	_____
to over-react	to react too strongly to sth	réagir trop violemment to advise	to give some _____	_____
to affect	= to influence	_____ continuously	without an int _____	_____
to succeed in doing	= to manage to do	_____ to occur, occurred	to take place, to happen	se passer, arriver expenses (plural)	Cf expensive = dear	les frais to point out	The air hostess pointed out the emergency exits.	indiquer to do damage to sth	to cause damage, to damage	_____ to handle	a luggage handler = a porter a door handle: une p _____	manipuler

a solicitor	sort of a lawyer who gives legal advice and prepare legal documents	_____ exhausted	very _____	épuisé a grade	a mark at school OR a class: in 9th grade	_____ to gamble	They gambled at the casino.	jouer (de l'argent)
pasty	They have pasty faces	d'un teint terne
the other way round	No, you're wrong, it's the other way round!	le contraire
pages 124-125
thanks to		grâce à
on the cheap	= cheaply Don't be cheap, give me money (:avare)!	bon marché
the pros and con	= the advantages and disadvantages	les avantages et les inconconvénients to allow	He is not allowed to come. Travel allows you a discover new worlds.	_____ stunning	= terrific, fantastic, great	_____ a tip	- extra money given for a service - a suggestion, a piece of advice	un pour _____ un tuyau, conseil to be worth	This is worth £ 30 = it costs £ 30 It is worth brushing up your vocab.	valoir valoir la peine (de faire) a brand	Coca Cola and Nike are famous brands	une _____ sightseeing (noun)	Cf to go sightseeing: faire du tourisme	la visite, le tourisme a scarf	Plural: some _____	_____ a plug	Can you put the plug of the OHP into the socket which is in the wall next to the door?	_____ numerous	He has got numerous friends	nombreux to be ripped off	= to be had, to be cheated	se faire rouler
to claim		prétendre, revendiquer
a campsite	It's the place where you can put up your tent when you go camping	_____
a pitfall	= an unexpected difficulty	un piège to be blurred	= not to be clear: this photo is blurred, so we cannot see who is on it.	être flou shallow	= not deep	peu profond

a recipe	What you follow when you do the cooking	_____ grumpy	= bad tempered	grincheux
a spell	= a period of time: a spell of nice weather	une période
the valuables	Cf a valuable stone: a diamond, a ruby	les objets de valeur
a pouch	a little bag where you can put little objects or your money for instance	une pochette sensible	= intelligent	sensé
a conman	Cf to con sb: _____	un escroc
a budget	They live on a tight budget.	un budget to overlook	- They overlooked the main difficulty. - The hotel overlooks the sea	négliger, oublier dominer to encounter	You encounter problems.	rencontrer beware of	Beware of the dog.	_____
to rest	= to have a rest	_____
to prevent	He prevented us (from) sleeping.	_____ p127-130
on behalf of	I am writing to you on behalf of Mr Smith.	au nom de to attend	You can attend school, church, a meeting, etc	assister à an engineer	Someone who has studied eng_____	un ingénieur
a committee		_____
prior to	= before Prior to leaving, you must sign. without prior notice: sans avertissement	_____ rough	this surface is rough, Opp: smooth: lisse the sea is rough because there is a lot of wind, so a lot of waves to. (opp: the sea is smooth)	_____
to go on a trip		faire un voyage travel (U noun)	Travel is expensive A trip, a journey, a voyage (only by boat), a cruise	_____ resentful	a resentment: une rancune	_____ to bring up sb	He brought up his kids alone.	élever
to bring sb round	= to make sb conscious again	ranimer